Bouquets and Hand Ties

It is often the case that floral tributes are left behind at the Crematorium or Cemetery. A Floral Bouquet, not only providing a cost effective and substantial tribute, can also be taken away after the funeral, given as gifts for others, or just placed in a vase at home.

Families also use these types of tribute to leave on another grave for a nearby family member, they even work perfectly as flowers that can be sent to a local Nursing Home so others can benefit from their beauty.

FLORAL SHEAVES

Sheaves are created as a flat arrangement, similar to a flat bouquet but a lot more substantial and without any cellophane. They are ideally suited as an alternative to a Coffin Spray, they extend good value and offer an almost endless array of flower and colour options.

These are just an illustration of what we can provide, so speak with our florists for help and guidance.

These tributes can also be enhanced with one of our personalised printed ribbons.
