

Your Right to Making a Complaint

THE SEARSON FAMILY
FUNERAL SERVICE

'We don't just arrange funerals, we create meaningful days'

'We don't just arrange funerals, we help create meaningful days'

Our Commitment to Quality:

The Searson Family Funeral Service aim to provide the highest standards of service, and this is a consistent commitment we make to each and every family we serve. We have many years of experience with thousands of satisfied and grateful clients. However, occasionally, for whatever reason, we may not meet the expectations of a family and it is vital that we know about a lack of service so we can do all we can to put things right.

Should you feel the need to make a complaint, you must feel confident that it will be taken seriously. Please place trust in our family to deal with your complaint promptly and that we learn from any mistakes we make.

What is a Complaint?

A complaint is when you tell us you are not happy about any part of the service and/or products we have provided.

How to make a Complaint:

If you wish to make a formal complaint you can contact our Funeral Director who takes responsibility for, what is often, a very rare but serious situation. Andrew Searson, can be contacted:

IN WRITING:

The Searson Family Funeral Service
25 - 29 Park Parade
Leigh Park
Havant
PO9 5AA

Your complaint will be acknowledged within three days and fully investigated within five working days. Should you not be fully satisfied with the resolve of your complaint, a formal meeting will be arranged where you will have the opportunity to meet with us to express your concerns and further state your case.

If You are Still Unhappy:

If you are still unhappy with our proposed resolution, you can contact The National Association of Funeral Directors, of whom we are members. You can quote our Membership Number below and peruse your complaint further in a written correspondence. The NAFD will expect any complaint to have been through, and exhausted, all other potential possibilities before hearing your concerns and, if necessary, will refer your complaint to the NAFD RESOLVE.

We are proud of the high standards of service being provided and take any complaint, no matter how small, very seriously and we will ensure every possible step is taken to provide a positive outcome.
